Immerse yourself in the epitome of elegance and nature, encased within a sprawling 100-acre sanctuary near Bellingen. Tucked away in the esteemed region known as The Promised Land, this amazing haven offers an unrivaled panorama of the majestic Great Dividing Range escarpment, and the tranquil Never Never River running through the property.

Boasting an elegant main residence, three top-tier holiday chalets, a games room, a huge two-storey timber shed, and a tennis court, the estate is a harmonious blend of comfort and adventure. Its land with forests and fenced paddocks, established gardens, and an array of fruit trees, paints a vivid portrait of the grandeur of rural life.
